RSPCA pet insurance – the people who really care about pets.

RSPCA pet insurance is recommended by people you know care deeply about animal welfare, and starts from as low as £2.92 a month (based on Silver cover for a crossbreed cat, aged 2, female, postcode IV2 4BH). Premiums are based on the pet's breed, age, sex, location and the level of cover chosen. What's more, even though it's a highly competitive rate, 20% of your premium helps fund the work of the RSPCA. So not only will you be protecting your pet, you'll be helping to protect thousands of other defenceless animals too.

Most pet illnesses are now treatable, but treatment can be expensive. The high level of cover included with RSPCA pet insurance, underwritten by AXA Insurance UK plc, gives you the reassurance that care will be provided for your pet when you need it.

RSPCA pet insurance cover includes:

- Up to £6,000 vet fees per condition
- Third party liability up to £2million
- Emergency boarding fees
- Help with cost of recovering lost or stolen pets
